THE FAIRMONT CHATEAU WHISTLER

Dining options at The Fairmont Chateau Whistler present authentic, fresh menus and unique experiences.

The Wildflower: A tantalizing showcase of locally inspired dishes and innovative favourites in a warm and relaxed setting. Enjoy classic style, morning or evening.

The Grill Room: An experience beyond the traditional steakhouse, The Grill Room features a rich collection of Canada Prime beef dishes, fresh seafood and local, organic ingredients to create an unforgettable evening of fine dining.

Tea at The Fairmont: Set in the comfort of the Mallard Lounge, a new afternoon-tea tradition awaits. Relaxed and inviting, this alpine tea transcends time, cultures and, most of all, your expectations.

The Mallard Lounge and Terrace: Playful martinis and decadent desserts abound at this popular destination. Enjoy light fare, sample fine scotches and stargaze, all in the comforting glow of roaring fire pits.

Portobello Market and Fresh Bakery: Portobello's hip and lively setting serves up a fresh and fabulous deli-style menu.

The Chalet: With its enchanting fireside ambience, The Chalet is a warm and welcoming winter haven for evening fondue dining. (Open from mid-December to mid-March.)

Clubhouse Terrace: A memorable day of golf deserves an equally endearing finale. Enjoy relaxed dining on the outdoor patio. (Open from May to October.)

The Woodlands Rooftop Terrace: As a group-function area, the terrace is ideal for summertime events. It features a manicured herb garden and a large, heated marquee tent—complete with lighting and sound systems—that can accommodate up to 600 guests.

HOST MOUNTAIN RESORT FOR THE 2010 OLYMPIC GAMES

The vibrant energy and spirit of the 2010 Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games lives on in Whistler. Guests can now live out their own Olympic dreams: the Whistler Sliding Centre offers bobsled and luge, while Whistler Olympic Park features ski jumping and a Nordic-sports activity centre. Both new venues are unique additions to Whistler's rich, authentic tapestry.

EXPLORING WHISTLER

Whistler's pedestrian-only areas create the perfect setting for relaxed exploring, where most everything is accessible by foot or the free Village Shuttle. The Fairmont Chateau Whistler is located in the prestigious Upper Village, a casual stroll away from the main Lower Village.

In total, Whistler offers:

- Over 90 restaurants
- More than 150 retail shops
- 15 parks, totalling 551 hectares (1,362 acres)
- 5 major lakes
- 35 kilometres (22 miles) of valley trail.
