MOUNTAIN ADVENTURE PROGRAM

WELCOME TO OUR ALPINE PARADISE OF ADVENTURE & EXPLORATION

Fall is a time of transition in the Rocky Mountains. Valley bottoms are typically dry with breathtaking walks surrounded by magnificent changing tree colours. As you climb upwards, the high country begins to be covered in a soft blanket of snow, signaling the beginning of the winter season and gentle progression into Mother Nature's calm hibernation.

Fairmont Chateau Lake Louise has a long and proud guiding tradition. Embrace the local knowledge and experiences by joining one of our accredited Mountain Adventure Guides on a guided hike through one of the incredible trails offered in our backyard.

Different hikes are available as conditions allow. Transportation is included with all trips.

For longer hikes, we strongly recommend you pack a lunch!

Cancellation Policy: Bookings must be cancelled 12 hours in advance to avoid being charged the full cost of the program.*

WHAT TO WEAR

Don't let a lack of special gear keep you from one of our most rewarding experiences. The trick to being comfortable in the mountains is to dress in layers. A warm sweater, hiking appropriate pants, wind/water proof jacket, a hat, and sunglasses are recommended. Please ensure your footwear is designed for hiking. And, finally, don't forget to bring a bottle of water and your camera, of course.

LARCH SEASON IN LAKE LOUISE

There is a special time of year in the heart of the Canadian Rockies when the needles of the forest-green larches turn to a beautifully bright gold. In mid-to-late September, hikers flock to the mountains to experience the spectacular display of golden larches across Banff National Park's trails.

Lake Louise is one of the premier locations for larch spotting in the Rockies, so we're providing you some of the best trails for larch spotting.

LARCH VALLEY & SENTINEL PASS

It should come as no surprise that the most popular hiking trail during larch season is Larch Valley at Moraine Lake. Guests of Fairmont Chateau Lake Louise can book onto our Moraine Lake Shuttle and hike up to the famed golden trail with minimal fuss. The trail is rated as difficult, but the reward is worth the work!

CONSOLATION LAKES

If you want to hike around Moraine Lake but are looking for a hike that is a little more low-key, Consolation Lakes is perfect. This 5.8 km out and back trail is a great family-friendly hike that offers amazing larch and lake views with minimal elevation gain.

LAKE AGNES

The Lake Agnes trail head is to the right of the hotel, only minutes from your room! It is rated as moderate difficulty and is about 2.5 - 3 hours round trip. The views from this trail will leave you in awe, and the larches make the already-spectacular Lake Agnes even more jaw-dropping.

SADDLEBACK

If you're looking for a slightly more challenging hike up to see the larches, Saddleback is for you. The trail head is next to our Boathouse (to the left of the hotel, again right at our doorstep!) and brings you up into Paradise Valley where you'll find yourself surrounded by golden larches and views for days.

LAKE LOUISE GONDOLA

If you're into larch views but would rather not hike, the Lake Louise Gondola is right up your alley! Just a short 10 minute drive across the valley you can catch a chair or gondola up the mountain for some epic golden views. Minimal work, maximum reward!

Further information and pricing on the Lake Louise Gondola can be found on page 45 of this guide.
