AFTERNOON TEA

Enjoy spectacular views of Lake Louise and Victoria Glacier to go along with a wonderfully elegant tradition. Delight in an assortment of Lot 35 teas accompanied by delectable pastries and traditional North American and European-style finger sandwiches. Afternoon Tea at Fairmont Chateau Lake Louise is a truly delightful way to spend the afternoon.

AFTERNOON TEA HISTORY:

Afternoon tea dates back to the 1840's in England. Created by the Duchess of Bedford as a way to curb her hunger between lunch and dinner meals, the ritual of afternoon tea was quickly adopted by the upper class women in British aristocratic society. It served as the perfect event for the women to combine some of their greatest interests: drinking tea and gossiping.

A traditional afternoon tea menu typically included tea, bread with butter, and cakes. It wasn't until the 20th century that what are now seen as a staple in an afternoon tea menu, scones, were added, served along with delicious clotted cream and jam preserves. With these additions came the great afternoon tea debate: do you put your clotted cream on first, or after the jam?

A man and a woman are standing on a balcony, smiling and holding champagne glasses. They are looking at each other. The balcony has a white balustrade and a small table with a lantern. In the background, there are snow-capped mountains and evergreen trees under a cloudy sky.
